

Competent Fire Safety Practitioner (CFSP) statement

Pursuant to clause 167A of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000
This statement has been prepared for use only in relation to applications lodged with The Hills Shire Council

I (name) _____
of (company name) _____
Mobile _____ Email _____

Provide this statement for determination as a CFSP for the project detailed below -

Address of building/works _____

DA No. _____ CC No. _____ OR CDC No. _____

Select relevant EP&A Regulation clause for which CFSP is requested (noting acceptable accreditation level required for consideration as a CFSP).

		Please tick
130	BCA alternative solution report for a fire safety requirement associated with a Complying Development Certificate application	<input type="checkbox"/>
OR
144A	BCA alternative solution report for a fire safety requirement associated with a Construction Certificate application	<input type="checkbox"/>
OR
152B	Confirmation of completion and consistency of building work relating to the alternative solution required by clause 130/144A	<input type="checkbox"/>
Acceptable: Grade C10 accreditation as a Fire Safety Engineer

		Please tick
136AA	Endorsement of plans and specifications for building work forming part of a Complying Development Certificate involving the installation, extension or modification of any relevant fire safety system	<input type="checkbox"/>
OR
146B	Endorsement of plans and specifications for building work forming part of a Construction Certificate involving the installation, extension or modification of any relevant fire safety system	<input type="checkbox"/>
OR
164B	Endorsement of documentation related to request for BCA compliance exemption of the operational performance of a relevant fire safety system	<input type="checkbox"/>
Acceptable:
Any one or more of the following as applicable to the relevant fire safety system	1. BPB Accredited – Category C8 - for Fire Detection and Alarm systems.
	2. BPB Accredited – Category C9 - for Mechanical ducted smoke control system/s.
	3. BPB Accredited – Category C14 - for Hydraulic fire safety system/s within the meaning of clause 165 of EP&A Reg.
	4. National Engineering Register (Engineers Australia) – Professional or Chartered Engineer – in building services, mechanical or fire safety as applicable to the fire services related to the CFSP requirement together with current Professional Indemnity.
	5. Fire Protection Accreditation Scheme (FPAS) – Fire Systems Design Category – Sprinkler system, Hydrant, Fire hose reel, and Smoke detection and alarm designers.

Acceptable: 6. Victorian Building Authority – Engineers in the following categories – (cont.)
Mechanical engineer (Mech Ducted smoke control systems), Electrical engineer (smoke detection and alarm systems), Fire safety engineer (sprinklers, hydrants and fire hose reel design), or Draft person (Building Design – Services) with experience in Fire Service being designed. As the Fire Service being designed/altered will need to reflect the VBA registration associated with the work.

Details of Accreditation held (as identified above) eg BPB grade of accreditation & number
Signed	Date

Documentation attached to this statement (select all relevant) –

- Alternative solution report pursuant to clause 130/144A including copy of the brief on which the justification of the alternative solution was based, and accompanied by the plans and specifications which show and describe the physical elements of the alternative solution.
- Plans and specifications of the relevant fire safety system, detailed as required by clause 136AA/146B, and certified by a compliance certificate (109C(1)(a) EP&A Act) or otherwise endorsed, as required by clause 136AA/146B.
- Endorsed documentation, pursuant to a 164B request for a BCA compliance exemption related to the operational performance of a relevant fire safety system.
- Compliance certificate (109C(1)(a)EP&AAct) or written report, pursuant to clause 152B, which includes a statement of completion and consistency of the building work with the clause 130/144A alternative solution report.
- Other _____

NB: until an order is published pursuant to subclause (1) of 167A of the EP&A Regulation 2000, The Hills Shire Council when acting as certifying authority or principal certifying authority will have sole discretion to determine in its opinion, when a person is taken to be a Competent Fire Safety Practitioner. The completion of this statement, the required accreditation therein and any attached documentation will form the minimum base line information for the consideration of that opinion.

Determination of Competent Fire Safety Practitioner CFSP (clause 167A) (Council use only)

Name of person seeking recognition _____
Detail of acceptable accreditation as listed on this statement or otherwise relied upon in making this determination _____

In satisfying the above criteria, the person named above is deemed to be a CFSP for the purposes of this application.

Name	Accreditation no.
Signed (in capacity of council employed certifier)	Date