

The Hills Library Challenge May 2020

Join in the fun from home as we celebrate Library and Information week, 25-31 May. Choose new challenges to complete every day, take a photo of your challenge results and share them with a friend or family member. Invite them to join too! Parents, tag the library Facebook page and use #HillsLibraryChallenge so we can see and share your challenge results.

Create

Play

Connect

GET PHYSICAL

Mind Games

BOOKS WITH BITE

Read your cake and eat it too!
Bake and decorate a cake based on your favourite book or literary character.

PAVEMENT ART

Share your love of reading by creating some book themed chalk art in your backyard.
Mix 2 tbs paint with ½ cup water and ¾ cup Plaster of Paris. Pour into sandwich bags then pour into wax lined toilet rolls, taped on the bottom. Wait till dry.
Have fun!

LIBRARY AT HOME

Being a librarian is awesome, now YOU can have a turn. Run a storytime, set up a book display, make library cards for your borrowers, shush those noisy patrons and recommend your favourite books to anyone who will listen.

Sing along with our virtual baby bounce sessions.

READING FORT

Build a reading fort from items you find around the house – sheets, blankets, chairs, pegs etc.
Deck out your fort for maximum comfort (think cushions, blankets, a string of lights and some snacks!) and then settle in with your favourite book.

SILLY VOICES

Make a silly voices spinner using this template from ABCTeach and have fun reading or chatting to your family and friends in silly voices.
Can you do a robot voice? Alien or fancy voices? See what others you can come up with then set a timer and spin for a new silly voice to keep the fun going.

BEST BOOK, WORST COSTUME

Create a terrifically terrible costume based on a book character using only items you have at home.
Search online for costume ideas!

LISTEN WHILE YOU MOVE

Bookish Podcasts are aplenty, listen while you walk, stretch or play!
For Adults:
ABC The Bookshelf Selected Shorts
For Kids:
David Walliam's Marvellous Musical Podcast
Julie's Library: Story Time with Julie Andrews

MINISTRY OF SILLY WALKS

Join the Ministry of Silly Walks and film yourself doing your most outrageously silly walk while out exercising.
Get the whole family to join in and start a silly walk-off.

LET YOUR MIND WANDER

A good book can make any humdrum activity more enticing.
Download an eAudiobook through the library and listen while you cook, hang washing, do yard work or clean.

WIZARDING QUIZ

Do you know the answers? This Harry Potter quiz will keep your mind busy!
Challenge the whole family to the The First Year Feasts and Treats Quiz.